

Wilder School Alumni Ambassadors

The Wilder School Alumni Ambassadors Program volunteers represent the L. Douglas Wilder School at VCU through participation in special events, mentorship and outreach.

Volunteers contribute across three key areas:

— SPEAK —

- » Lead group conversations with students
- » Influence prospective students and participate in speaking engagements and panel discussions
- » Provide career insights and support student-to-graduate success pathways

— LEAD —

- » Share your perspectives and experiences with current and prospective students to grow their understanding of Wilder School programs and resources
- » Build professional networks and community connections among students — past and present

— ENGAGE —

- » Promote and attend Wilder School and its signature events
- » Share Wilder School news, updates and faculty and alumni accomplishments among your professional and social networks
- » Provide quotes for branding and promotional materials

Volunteer term of appointment program participation includes fall and spring semesters across one academic year.
