BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

Dr. Christina Mancini's scholarship seeks to contribute to efforts to improve public safety and enhance crime prevention. Specifically, her research centers on understanding the emergence and efficacy of contemporary crime laws, with a particular emphasis on criminal victimization. She has published over 50 studies in the areas of sex crime, victimization, campus crime, public opinion, and law. Her work is featured in respected journals such as Criminology, the Journal of Criminal Law and Criminology, the Journal of Criminal Justice, Crime & Delinquency, Sexual Abuse: A Journal of Research and Treatment, and other outlets. She is the author of the scholarly book, Sex Crime, Offenders, and Society: A Critical Look at Sexual Offending and Policy (2014, Carolina Academic Press). Her second text, Campus Crime and Safety (Kendall Hunt), was published in 2015. Dr. Mancini's research is nationally recognized and she is the recipient of many awards and honors. In 2014, she was given the Faculty Researcher of the Year Award by the American Society of Criminology, Division of Victimology. She is also the 2015 recipient of the Wilder School Excellence in Scholarship Award. Professor Mancini's expertise has been featured in national and local news outlets such as the Boston Globe, Washington Post, The New York Daily News, National Public Radio (NPR), Knoxville News Sentinel, Style Weekly, Waco Tribune-Herald, Texas Tribune, and the Sun-Sentinel. In 2015, she co-founded (along with several other scholars) the Sexual Offense Policy Research (SOPR) Workgroup, an international organization dedicated to improving policy responses toward sexual offending and victimization (<http://www.sopresearch.org/>). She holds editorial advisory board appointments for several policy-focused journals: Criminal Justice Review, the Journal of School Violence, the Journal of Criminal Justice, and Social Sciences and Humanities. Dr. Mancini is currently finalizing her third book, We'ed the People: Pot, Public Opinion, and Drug Policy, currently under contract with Carolina Academic Press (expected publication date of Fall 2026).
