The mission of the Virginia Commonwealth University Wilder School Student Ambassador & Advisory Council (SAAC) is to develop, promote and enhance the student experience while fostering a culture of collaboration, leadership, and engagement.
Wilder School Student Advisory & Ambassador Council (SAAC) Guidelines and Expectations Agreement

The Wilder School Student Ambassador & Advisory Council Program is for volunteers who wish to represent VCU Wilder School by providing support and participation for special events, campus tours and other duties as assigned. Wilder School SAAC ensures that students have a voice and serves as the link between students and Wilder School faculty and administration. SAAC will be comprised of a minimum of two representatives from each Wilder School undergraduate and graduate programs.

The term of appointment extends for one academic year. This will include two semesters. The first semester will be the fall and the second semester will be the spring (August through May). There is potential for summer work as well. Student will have the opportunity to extend beyond the initial one academic year appointment.

Wilder School SAAC meets at least twice per fall and spring semester. The expectation is that representatives attend all meetings. The meeting schedule will be announced at the start of the academic semester.

Position Qualifications

Student Ambassadors must have a 2.5 GPA or higher to be accepted into the Wilder School Student Ambassador & Advisory Council and must maintain a 2.5 GPA throughout service. Student Ambassador must have at least one semester completed as a Wilder School student and be enrolled in at least 6 credits.

Special Events

- Student Ambassadors will assist faculty, staff, and programs with various Wilder School activities and events. Events may include: Recruitment Campus Tours, Excellence in Virginia Awards, May and December Commencement Ceremonies, Employer Showcase, New Student Orientation, Welcome Week, Open House, Preview Day, and other annual Wilder School events. A list of special events for the academic year will be provided to each Ambassador via email.

Events will be sent to Ambassadors via the e-mail provided on the application. It is the Ambassadors responsibility to sign up for events, trainings, meetings, and workshops. Ambassadors are encouraged to check their e-mail regularly to stay up to date of upcoming events or any changes or updates that may have occurred.

- Student Ambassadors are encouraged to attend the Student Leadership Studio sponsored by the Student Commons and Activities Student Leadership Center. Workshops are designed to serve as building blocks to developing core leadership competencies. Workshops are held Tuesdays from 4pm to 5pm and Wednesdays from 12pm to 1pm during the fall and spring semesters.
- It is the responsibility of the Student Ambassador to become familiar with the information that he or she is expected to know for the Wilder School event/program that are serving as a host. Program/event information will be provided to the ambassador.
